Movement Therapy News

If you would like any information on our Special Needs programs at Club Aviva, we now have a brochure available at the office with information on the types of programs and prices.

We would like to express a warm welcome to Gillian Church and Miriam Nelson. Gillian is a student at SFU studying Kinesiology and will be apprenticing on Thursdays. Miriam will be apprenticing on Mondays.

Note of interest: Caroline is still continuing to assist with our research from afar. She is relocating to Glasgow and we wish her the best of luck in her journey.

 We are now offering Playdate bookings. This will be an unstructured class that your child can use to work on their social interaction. Please speak with Vivien if you are interested in booking a Playdate.

Girls Competitive News

Please refer to the Competitive bulletin board in the main lobby for updates and schedule changes, and remember to always check your personal boxes!

Congratulations to Nicole Chow and Dayna Weststeyn for qualifying to the National Novice High Performance Category. Nicole was also selected for the National Novice Espoir Team. Nicole is the youngest athlete in Canada to be selected to this year's team!

Way to go to those athletes who attended the Zone 3 BC Winter Games trials! Qualifying for BC Winter Games are Gillian Hannemayer, Janine Mereniuk, Nicole Chow, Savannah Rodney, Tamara O'Brien and Jennifer Lam. Please check the bulletin board for results.

Congratulations to all athletes who participated in the Provincial Physical Ability Test. The girls were awesome and far exceeded our expectations. Please check the Bulletin board for results.
